

Agenda for Rule Development Workshop #3
For the Kissimmee Basin Water Reservations

Thursday, March 26, 2009 – 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM

Workshop Purpose: Share results of the on-going evaluations described at the 2/26/09 workshop, address stakeholder comments received on March 10th, present ranges of volumes and flows identified for the protection of fish and wildlife and to discuss the results and upcoming events.

Introductions, Opening Remarks, Overview of the Workshop (Chip Merriam, Deputy Executive Director, Water Resources)	15p
Stakeholder Comments and Analysis (Scott Burns, Director, Everglades Water Supply Policy)	15p/5d
Range of Acceptability Parameter Selection (Scott Burns, Director, Everglades Water Supply Policy)	30p/10d
Biologic Considerations Associated with the Range of Acceptability (Lawrence Glenn, Director, Kissimmee Division)	15p/5d
Results of the Analysis for Defining the Range of Water for Protection of Fish and Wildlife (Mark Abbott, AECOM, consulting for SFWMD)	20p/5d
Discussion of Results	20d
Peer Review Events (Scott Burns, Director, Everglades Water Supply)	10p/5d
Upcoming Events (Chris Carlson, Science Supervisor, Kissimmee Division)	5p
Adjourn	